MORE THAN 200 BOY SCOUTERS AT CAMPOREE

More than 200 Boy Scouts and Explorers from throughout the county were encamped at the South Mountain Fairgrounds today for the annual spring Black Walnut Boy Scout District camporee.

The encampment began Friday evening when units from throughout the district arrived to place their tents and construct "gateways" to the areas assigned them.

COOK BY PATROLS

This morning most of the Scouts went through an obstacle course set up by Post 78 and then settled down to programs of instruction lasting through this afternoon on various requirements for First Class and Second Class badges.

Cooking in the three-day encampment is being conducted on the patrol basis, with each patrol setting up its own menu and selecting its own cooks. Wood or charcoal are providing the fires for the cooking.

Camp Director Paul Hollings said he anticipates the largest number of advancements at any time in history as a result of the encampment. The instruction courses are also designed to include tests of the skill of the youths and those successfully completing the requirements will have their advancement cards signed during the camporee.

Tonight Cub Scouts and their leaders and parents will be guests at the camporee. Most are planning to arrive about 5 o'clock and hold a pack picnic before attending a campfire program being put on by the Scouts and Explorers. Among events at the campfire will be presentation of awards won in the window display contest in February.

Question Make of Tile Used In Cyclorama

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Interior Department has been requested by Sen. Scott, R-Pa., to review procedures of procuring tile to be used in construction of an historical cyclorama at the Gettysburg, Pa., battlefield park.

Scott Friday in a letter to the secretary of the interior, said the tile being used there has been imported from Japan. "And this in spite of the fact that there are a number of tile manufacturers within a one mile radius of the construction site," Scott wrote.

The contract for the construction of the cyclorama calls for ceramic tile in the rest rooms and on the drum leading from the main floor to the viewing platform.

The Time was unable to ascertain this morning whether tile made in Japan is being used.

President Pun Of Korea Withdraws Resignation

By GENE KRAMER
SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Bowling to pleas of rebel generals, President Yun Po-sun today withdrew his one-day-old resignation to give South Korea's new military regime constitutional status.

The elder statesman, 63, announced he had agreed to stay on as the civilian figurehead chief-of-state to avoid "international repercussions."

Foreign diplomats are accredited to the president and U. S. officials take the view that Yun remaining in office would make recognition of the new regime automatic.

The president announced withdrawal of his resignation at a news conference flanked by the two top leaders of the ruling junta—Lt. Gen. Chang Do-young, who named himself premier and defense minister earlier in the day, and Maj. Gen. Pak Jung-bi.

ADVERTISING CAMPAIGN IS OPENED BY C. C.

Gettysburg's Chamber of Commerce this week turned to advertising to get its message across to business men in an effort to up its membership to 200.

With 135 signed as members, one of the largest numbers in years, the membership committee headed by Frank Sapp this week used 20 spot announcements over WGCT and daily newspaper ads to acquaint the public with the work of the Chamber while the membership committee begins visitation to more than 300 persons who "should belong to the C. C.," as Sapp put it.

Chamber President Julian Estep praised the committee for its action and said "perhaps the best feature of the advertisements is to remind the business men and public generally that one of the things the Chamber must do is to consider what our area should be 20 to 30 years from now and seek to work toward that goal."

MEETINGS SCHEDULED

Noting that the roads and highways committee of the Chamber will meet Monday at noon at the Varsity Diner while the civic affairs and industrial committees have both scheduled meetings for noon Tuesday at the Lamp Post Tea Room, Estep held: "At long last we have been able to set our Chamber up in such fashion that every member is on a committee and every committee is active. Thus the ideas of every member in the Chamber are being sought out and acted upon. Two hundred men and women thinking for the good of the community can come up with a much better program (Continued On Page 5)

Town May Get New Industry

Prospects of a new company to operate in the former Victor Products Co. building on N. Washington St. lean toward the brighter side today, according to Ray Hoffman, who was president and general manager of Victor Products before it was sold to the Victor Rubber Co., of Hagerstown.

This week approximately 200 pieces of machinery of the old company were sold at auction and removed from the plant. More than 50 rubber machine dealers attended the auction where, it was said, bidding was spirited. Now the building is available for a new industry, Hoffman said.

Hoffman sold the Victor Products business but retained the building. The Victor Rubber Co. has a lease on the building that will not expire until December 31, 1964. However, Hoffman may close out the lease if another industry wishes to locate there.

Hoffman told The Times today that several industrial representatives have inspected the property and are interested in locating here. He declined to give their names but said they are reputable firms and will add to the economy of the community.

4 Reporters, 5 Priests, 3 Nuns Among 101 Repatriated From Castro's Cuba Friday

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The first American prisoners repatriated from Fidel Castro's Cuba, including the last U.S. newsmen there, arrived in Miami Friday night — some glad, some fighting mad and some fearfully silent.

Fifty-two Americans were in the group of 101 passengers who arrived aboard a chartered airliner. Also aboard were 46 Cuban refugees.

The Americans included four newsmen, five Catholic priests and three nuns.

There were cheers and applause when many of the repatriates walked from the plane. Some refused to identify themselves, explaining they feared for the safety of relatives still in Cuba or property on the island.

4 REPORTERS FREED

Among those returning were Harold K. Milks, chief of Associated Press Caribbean services, and Robert Berrellez, Associated Press correspondent in Havana; Ruby Hart Phillips, New York Times correspondent, and Martin P. Houseman of United Press International.

Churchmen aboard the plane included Father Lorenzo Spirali, founder of Villanueva University; Father Edward McCarthy, prior of Hufnagel, and Father Emelio Castro.

Other repatriates were Grace Dumond, mother of Miami City Commissioner Joseph X. Dumond; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kinsey of Fort Pierce, Fla.; Henry Sanz of Miami and Wellington Swearingen, retired farmer from Mooreland, Ind.

"I came out with a small zipper bag containing all the possessions remaining to me from a three-bedroom apartment in Havana," Milks said.

"Everything else, clothes, furniture, dishes and prized possessions gathered in more than 20 years as a foreign correspondent were left in the hands of Castro's militiamen." (Continued On Page 5)

ONLY MINOR CHANGES BY OFFICIAL VOTE

Official tabulation of the vote cast in Tuesday's election shows little change from the unofficial count recorded election night.

Luther Lady and Edward Stine, the official tabulators, with the county commissioners, worked from noon Friday to about 9 o'clock that evening to check the returns made by the 44 election boards.

The official tabulation bore out the unofficial count finding that Ronald Guise defeated Dr. Elizabeth Gregg by one vote, 154 to 153, for the Democratic nomination for school director in Gettysburg.

The official count lowered slightly the lead Fred W. Renner had over H. Wayne Cluck in the battle for Republican nomination for sheriff. The unofficial count gave Renner a 132 margin of victory; the official count reduced that to 126. Renner officially had 2,355 votes and Cluck, 2,229. The official count also verified what some thought might have been a mistake on the unofficial return from Littlestown Second Ward. In that ward unofficially the tabulation was 123 to 1. The official count shows Cluck received only one vote in the ward, while Renner was credited with 118.

OFFICIAL TOTALS

According to the official tabulation, Sheriff Dawson Miller has a number of Republican friends, 17 of whom wrote in Miller's name in preference to voting for either Renner or Cluck. Donald Myers received one vote for the office.

Other Republican votes for county office according to the official tabulation were: Associate judge, R. M. Starry, 4,060; Earl Guise, 8; Dewey McCauslin, 2; two others with one vote each; clerk of courts, Clark Spence, 4,317; William Stonesifer, 3; Kenneth Johns, 3; three others with one vote each; treasurer, Daniel J. Wolff, 4,253; two others with one vote each; jury commissioner, Mervin I. Rice, 4,217; O. C. Rice Jr., 2, and three others with one vote each.

On the Democratic side the official count was: Associate judge, Earl Guise, 2,862; Judge Shelly, James Warren and Charles Bender were among seven others with one vote each; sheriff, Dawson Miller, 2,932; seven others with one vote each; clerk of the courts, R. J. Stonesifer, 2,738; Clark Spence, 4; Crosby Hartzell, 1; county treasurer, Clyde Allison, 2,783; three others including Daniel Wolff with one vote each; jury commissioner, Laura S. Freed, 2,737; one other with one vote.

resent, the ghastly crimes of which child molesters are capable and the too-frequent headlines of another child fallen victim to their lust make this unpleasant parental task vitally necessary.

It is indeed encouraging that parents, school officials, law enforcement agencies, and other civic-minded groups have responded as they have recently to the dire need for educating children to this danger. Many police agencies have made special projects of alerting parents and pupils in their communities. Meanwhile, parents' committees have established safeguarding procedures such as designating certain homes along school routes where youngsters may seek assistance should they be accosted by strangers.

There is still much work to be done, but these are the types of activities which should continue to mount until they gain nationwide interest and momentum.

At the same time—while citizens are doing their part—it is only fair to ask the courts and parole and probation authorities to insure that sex maniacs are not turned loose on society. There recently came to the attention of the FBI a case in which a sex deviate committed acts of indecent exposure before two sisters, neither yet in her teens. There was some disagreement among the attorneys of the prosecutor's office as to whether it would be better to defer prosecution in favor of administrative action by the offender's employer, especially since there was the possibility that a court appearance might have an adverse emotional effect upon the young girls. The proponent of the more vigorous prosecutive approach won out, however, and although the deviate indicated he would demand a jury trial, he pleaded guilty and was thereupon sentenced to a 5-year prison term. This case is cited as an example of how forceful action by prosecutor and court removed from society at least one potential killer of young victims, whereas the more lenient approach would have released him to perhaps commit a crime possibly more horrible than that for which he was imprisoned.

Planning Expert Meets Committee
Planning commission operation in 30 counties in Pennsylvania was outlined by Warren Zitzmann, chief of the planning division, Bureau of Community Development, Pennsylvania Department of Commerce, at a meeting Friday evening of the long range planning committee on Conservation of Water and Soil held at the West St. Branch of the Gettysburg National Bank. The committee is one of a group set up by the Adams County Agricultural Extension Association.

Zitzmann said one of the oldest is the 15-year-old planning commission in Bradford County. He added that county-wide planning has generally come about through the effort of groups of interested individuals and sometimes has developed after a region within a county has started planning and then the county became interested and extended the planning.

He added that "planning is a continuous thing. Conditions change and changes must be made in plans. County planning commissions must continue their work year after year, meeting new conditions as they arise."

Marks Of Severe Winter Weather Borne By Shrubs

The coldest, snowiest winter in local weather records is more than just a memory this spring. It has left its scars on ornamental shrubs, on the reddub on the battlefield, in fruit orchards and has marred the beauty of many a lawn and garden by leaving winter-damaged hedges and other ornamental plantings.

Privet hedges almost without exception were badly damaged by the frequent sub-zero temperatures and the hardy, slow-growing boxwoods had their foliage severely injured by the rough weather.

The light reddub bloom this spring on the battlefield is traced in large part to the severe winter by Supt. James Myers of the National Park office.

CEMETERY SHRUBS HURT

He noted that mature reddub trees are subject to borer damage and that may account for some of the bare branches. The severe cold also is believed to have helped to cut down the number of blooms this spring.

Some of the ornamental plantings in the National Cemetery also bear winter scars, Myers said. Boxwood and azaleas there are victims of windburn, he said, and expressed the opinion that much of the damage to the ornamentals came on late winter sunny days when icy winds were blowing. The plants themselves are sound and extra pruning this spring will remove many of the damaged sections. Nature is expected to restore many of the shrubs to their former beauty in short time.

County Farm Agent Frank Zettie says that much of the damage to the ornamentals was caused by desiccation, or drying out, rather than by severe temperatures, although in the case of the privet hedges the damage is blamed on the low temperatures. Zettie said that some of the extensive damage to boxwoods, young and old alike, goes beyond the foliage and includes loss of some of the woody stems. Some ornamentals lost only their bloom buds and are coming out in full leaf, he noted.

FRUIT "FORTUNATE"

Fruit trees, Zettie said, were generally "fortunate" as far as the absence of blooms on most forsythia this spring was due to the cold weather and noted that most of the blooms that did appear were on branches covered by the deep snows when the hardest freezes came.

Convicted Second Time For Macing

Convicted Thursday in the Franklin County courts of three counts of political macing, Lawrence C. Zeger, 45-year-old Mercersburg attorney, remained at liberty today under $500 bond pending disposition of a new trial appeal.

The jury of 11 men and one woman which had heard testimony in the Zeger matter also returned verdicts acquitting the defendant of the two remaining counts of the five-count indictment.

Immediately after the jury filed its verdict at 5:30 p.m. with Judge John J. Pentz, of Clearfield, specially presiding, Defense Atty. Robert P. Shoemaker presented an oral motion for a new trial. The court allotted the customary four days to the defense to file a written motion in support of the oral motion. It was the second time within two years Zeger was convicted in the macing matter. In September, 1959, he was convicted in the county courts of all five counts but subsequently won a new trial on the basis that the court erred when permission was not granted to the defendant to call character witnesses.

East Berlin PTA Votes 2 Donations

President Joseph Stoner presided at the final meeting of the year of the East Berlin Elementary PTA Tuesday evening in the East Berlin school.

At their business meeting the group voted $120 to the school for the purchase of playground equipment when the blacktopping of a portion of the ground is completed. Twenty dollars has been named for playground equipment by the former Reading Twp. PTA, now a part of the East Berlin organization.

Gary Crum, Bermudian Springs High School band instructor, explained to the group the need for summer band uniforms. Sixty-five dollars was voted toward the high school band fund.

Elementary Principal Charles Phillips conducted the installation services for the unit's officers elected at the April meeting. They are Mrs. Robert Gregory, president; Joseph Stoner, vice president; Mrs. Paul Lerew, secretary; Mrs. Harold Cramer, treasurer, and J. Calvin Leinart, historian.

Out-going officers are Stoner; Luther Smith, vice president, and Mrs. Irene Lemmon, secretary. Other officers were re-elected. Refreshments were served by the hospitality committee.

Castro Sends Committee To Arrange Trade

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—A committee of prisoners captured in the recent invasion of Cuba will be sent to the United States Sunday to arrange for the ransom of their companions, Prime Minister Fidel Castro said today.

Castro, speaking on television from Havana, said the 1,200 prisoners captured in the April 17 attack would be exchanged "in increasing order of importance" for 500 bulldozers.

NATURE WILL REPAIR

Nurseryman Harry Biesecker at Cashtown expressed the opinion that nature will repair much of the winter damage to ornamentals and some home owners are acting hastily in having damaged shrubs taken out to be replaced.

The root systems are sound and with a little patience they will replace the damaged tops faster than they were grown originally," he said.

The boxwoods, Biesecker believes, were hurt by the first onslaught of severe cold last December after warm days in the early part of that month. "There was too much sap in boxwood and holly stems when that coldest weather hit," Biesecker said. Besides the boxwood and hollies, pyracantha was hit hard as were one-and-two-year-old fruit trees in nursery plantings. The young pear trees probably were the hardest hit of all, he said.

Besides Artime, Castro is holding Jose Miro Torra, son of Jose Miro Cardona, who is head of the anti-Castro revolutionary council, and Carlos Varona, son of Antonio Varona, who is another exile leader.

GREW TOO LATE

Mr. Biesecker had another explanation for the severity of some of the damage to ornamental trees and shrubs. "Many fertilizer al-falts, both chemical and organic, have talked lawn and garden owners into all-summer feeding of shrubs and ornamental trees. That causes them to grow into late fall and those new stems that haven't hardened off when cold weather comes are the ones that suffer most when severe cold arrives."

"Except for lawns, there probably should not be much feeding done after this month to guard against damage next winter," he advised.

The absence of blooms on most forsythia this spring was due to the cold weather and noted that most of the blooms that did appear were on branches covered by the deep snows when the hardest freezes came.

Reporter Freed From Cuba Claims Castro Is Fading

EDITORS NOTE — Robert Berrellez, Associated Press correspondent in Havana imprisoned during the abortive Cuban invasion, flew back to the United States Friday night with the first plane load of repatriated Americans. Here is his report on the present situation in Cuba.

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ
MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A powerful minority, with a fading picture of Fidel Castro as leader, rules Cuba now.

This minority, born out of the nucleus of well-trained Cuban Communists who went into the hills with Castro to support his revolution against deposed dictator Fulgencio Batista in 1958, is bent on carrying the new revolutionary dogma to every corner of Latin America.

The objective: eventual destruction of "imperialism," the Socialist term for the United States, without global war.

What part Fidel Castro personally will play in this is questioned by many.

FREED ON FRIDAY

These are the impressions gathered by this reporter from influential Cuban politicians, professionals, trained observers and the man-in-the-street during a 25-day imprisonment in one of Cuba's most ill-famed penitentiaries—La Cabana military fortress.

Together with 51 other American repatriates and about the same number of other passengers, we rode to freedom Friday from Havana.

The majority seemed hopeful of returning to a "free Cuba" someday. But most all were at a loss to explain how, or when.

This question was no mystery to the nearly 2,000 Cubans left in La Cabana when I left the military jail last May 12. To a man they were sure either direct American intervention or an invasion by the Organization of American States would liberate them. They seemed to have discarded any hope an internal upheaval would liberate them.

RUINED UNDERGROUND

They knew that the abortive April invasion had destroyed a well-organized underground poised with smuggled arms to strike the minute an invasion came.

"They didn't tell us," bitterly cried one underground movement man in prison. "They ruined us and months and months of work, money and material are gone just because they didn't tell us."

Today's Talk

THE HIGHEST ART

We hear so much of art. But what is art? And what is the highest form of art?

Lafacadio Hearn said that "unselfishness ought to be the real test of the very highest kind of art."

Why do I stoop and fondle and smell the velvet faces of my pet pansies this spring time? Why do I look into the colors of the sunset and feel natural thrills, like streaks of electric threads, light up my brain?

Why do I understand the song of the brook, and stand for minutes to enjoy some small bird as its little throat trembles and vibrates with happy song?

Are we not all—to a greater or less degree—worshippers of the highest art when we do these things?

Do we not come away from such experiences richer in heart and with a feeling of kindness toward others that we did not feel before?

I remember watching an actor one evening. It seemed to me that from beginning to end, in his role, he did not utter one false note. He was so much the perfect actor that he was almost all art. Is not this art, then, some touching of all that we are into all that has ever been?

And when we have done this extremely well—better than we have ever done it before, with no thought of selfish gain—have we not played upon the harp of the highest art?

Has not someone written that what this old world needs is just the "art of being kind"? And isn't he, also, fulfilling the highest art who appreciates?

Projected, 1961, by The George Matthews Adams Service

THE BENEFIT OF TROUBLE
If life were rosy and skies were blue

And never a cloud appeared,
If every heart that you loved proved true,

And never a friendship seared;
If there were no troubles to fret your soul,

You never would struggle to gain the goal.

It's trouble that makes you and proves your worth;

It's trouble that spurs you to better things;

It isn't the man with the joys of earth

Who courage and strength to his duty brings,

But the man who bends 'neath a burden great

Is the man who wins in the fight with fate.

It's something to work for; a debt to pay,

A place to gain, that young man needs;

The difficulties that line the way

Are really the mothers of splendid deeds.

The man with something he hopes to do

Is the man who toils with a purpose true.

VO-AG PROGRAM

The vocational agriculture program in high schools came into being with the passage of the Smith-Hughes bill in 1917 which established the National Vocational Education Act. This act provided federal support for the development and expansion of the vocational agriculture program.

Since the Smith-Hughes act a number of additional acts have been passed by the federal government to supplement the federal funds provided by the original vocational education act. These acts provide reimbursement through the state to the local school district up to as much as 80 per cent of the cost of conducting certain phases of the vocational agriculture program.

The local vocational agriculture department was opened in the fall of 1937 with facilities that were considered good for that time. Since then additional equipment has been added as well as more practical facilities for teaching a vocational agriculture course to meet the demands of a changing agriculture.

ADULT PROGRAMS

This program in the Gettysburg High School provides for instruction in agriculture beginning with the Ninth Grade through Grades Ten, Eleven and Twelve. In addition to the day school instruction, there is a program for young and adult farmers. The young farmer program offers organized instruction the year around. The adult program provides for organized instruction during the months of January through April.

The agriculture course for high school youth is primarily concerned with providing instruction to help boys become established in farming. Even with the current increase in farm size and corresponding decrease in number of farms, the annual need for operator replacements in Pennsylvania is approximately two times the total number of vocational agriculture seniors graduated. The agriculture course also provides the education and background for boys not interested in farming but interested in one of the many occupations that are considered allied or related to agriculture.

The agriculture course includes instruction in the enterprises of dairying, livestock production, poultry, vegetable and truck farming, forage crops, small grains, corn growing, fruit growing, farm forestry, soil and water management, farm management and farm mechanics. In addition each boy taking agriculture must have facilities to conduct a home project or farming program. This involves the growing, managing and keeping records on any enterprise he may choose from gardening to beef cattle or corn growing. These home projects provide an opportunity for first hand learning experiences and usually give the student a real satisfaction of accomplishment.

READY FOR COLLEGE

With today's agriculture being highly mechanized, farm mechanics instruction is an important part of the agriculture course. In this phase of the work boys have an opportunity to learn such skills involving farm carpentry, farm electricity, soldering and sheet metal, pipe and copper tube fitting, electric and acetylene welding, hot and cold metals, construction and maintenance of farm buildings, and the adjustment, repair and maintenance of the farm machinery found on our farms today.

A part of the vocational agriculture program is the intracurricular activity known as the Future Farmers of America. This is an organization of rural boys studying vocational agriculture. A boy may study vocational agriculture and not become a member of the Future Farmers of America. However, most boys become a member of the FFA because of the many advantages it has to offer its members. It provides a member with incentives to do good work in his agriculture course, provides awards, leadership training and degrees of recognition based on his individual all around growth.

With the desire for formal training beyond the high school level, boys graduating from the agriculture course can meet the entrance requirements to an agriculture college. Boys enrolling in the agriculture college will be guided into the proper mathematics and science courses by the guidance counselor to meet college entrance requirements.

Hold Sham Battle
At Fort Delaware

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—A sham battle of Fort Delaware, between attacking Confederate soldiers and defending Union forces, will be fought June 4 on Pea Patch Island as part of Civil War centennial celebration.

It's a phony fight all the way—muskets and cannons will be loaded with blanks—since there was never any Civil War battle fought on Delaware soil.

Persons from Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania and New Jersey will participate in the battle on the Delaware River island not far from Wilmington.

Because of limited facilities, only 1,500 tickets will be sold. Spectators will be transported to the pageant scene by boat.

PLANS TREK IN BUBBLE BOAT

YORK, Pa. (AP)—A 60-year-old engineer expects to start up a 100-mile stretch of the San Juan River in his 350-pound "bubble boat" on June 4.

He is Wayne Wilson, who left here Thursday seeking adventure. The "bubble boat" is his invention, which he used last year to travel across the Lachine Rapids on the St. Lawrence River.

The San Juan River is a tributary of the Colorado River, and his journey on it will be merely a preliminary to tackling the Colorado where it roars through the Grand Canyon.

But this could be quite a challenge, considering Wilson's dependence of propulsion and steering depend on his "walking."

HAS FOOT PEDALS

The bubble boat is propelled by foot pedals and is steered by merely changing his "walking" direction. The plastic ball has such an out-of-this-world appearance that Wilson discourages the curious with an explanatory sign which says "This is not a flying saucer."

Wilson said he would drive to Denver, thence to Mexican Hat, Utah, where he is to meet his guide, Gaylord Stavelly, who will go along as consultant on river conditions.

Wilson said he would first try to negotiate the San Juan River, then depend on Stavelly's advice in deciding whether to try the Colorado.

Fairfield Takes Title By Topping Bermudian 7-2 In Playoff Friday

Fairfield High succeeded Littleton as champions of the Adams County Scholastic Baseball League by defeating Bermudian Springs 7-2 in a playoff game on the Gettysburg College field Friday afternoon. The teams had been deadlocked for first place at the end of the regular season schedule.

Jim Neely, Fairfield moundsman, limited Bermudian to four hits, two of which came in the second inning when the Eagles scored both of their runs. He struck out seven. His opponent, Bill Delp, was reached for eight hits. He also fanned seven.

Bermudian broke the ice with two runs in the top of the second. Ronnie Spangler opened with a single and stole second base. Tom Roth was safe on an error as Spangler moved to third. Roth later pilfering second. Tom Hardy fanned. Spangler raced home as Joe McCauslin tossed out Miller. Sam Becker then singled Roth home. Dan Bricker walked but Charles Gembe grounded out to end the rally.

WINNING TALLY
Fairfield came right back with five tallies in its half of the same inning. Charley Mort was safe on an outfield error to start the big inning. John Weikert doubled and then Tom Reinhold sent both runners home on a solid single. Ted Kane walked after which Neely popped to third. McCauslin singled, Reinhold scoring. Stewart Sites grounded to Miller. Kane scoring on the play. McCauslin raced home with the fifth run when Ray Adelberger was safe on an error at second base.

The final Fairfield runs in the fourth came on singles by Neely and McCauslin followed by consecutive wild throws at second and third base following McCauslin's blow.

The loss for Bermudian leaves it with an overall 6-9 final record. Jack McAndrew's champs, now 6-3, have one more engagement at Smithsburg on Monday, May 29.

RIDES 4,000 WINS IN BRIEF CAREER

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Willie Shoemaker, five times national riding champion and only 29, has joined the select circle of jockeys who have ridden 4,000 winners.

Shoemaker booted home Guanteemey in Friday's third race at Hollywood Park. It was the 4,000th time a Shoemaker mount was first across the wire.

Willie and Johnny Longden, Eddie Arcaro and England's Sir Gordon Richards now constitute the top four riders in thoroughbred racing. Longden, who has ridden 5,511 winners, is 54. Sir Gordon, who has retired, has 4,870. Arcaro, with 4,600, is 45.

There has been no parallel in American racing to the meteoric 12-year career of the 96-pound, 4-foot-11 Shoemaker. His first winner was Shafter V April 20, 1949. He was national riding champion in 1950 (tied with Joe Culmone) and 1953, 1954, 1958 and 1959.

RED MOVES OUTLAWED

Any Communist activity is outlawed in South Korea. The new measures are similar to those vainly sought by the ousted government and led to protest demonstrations.

Tightening its grip on the capitol, the junta fired elderly Seoul Mayor Kim Sang-don, replacing him with Brig. Gen. Yoon Tai-il, one of the five engineers of the coup.

Two days ago Yoon had been named commander of the front-line South Korean 9th Army.

"The Chamber is getting cooperation from everyone and is greatly appreciative of it. Borough council has adopted three of the four projects suggested to it by the civic affairs committee and calls the Chamber in for consultation when needed. The committee also is serving as an information gatherer. Right now the committee is studying the borough manager type of government. We don't know if the committee will suggest it as an idea for Gettysburg or not. It depends on what it finds.

"TREMENDOUS POB"

"The highways committee has met with officials at Harrisburg and is working with them concerning the marking of the exits from the Route 15 bypass which will soon be underway. It also is studying Route 30 and may eventually have some suggestions to make to the proper authorities.

"The industrial committee has been doing a tremendous job and its efforts are bound to bear fruit eventually. Some of the members have devoted two or three days at a time to the work, simply letting their own businesses go by themselves during the period. With that type of interest and cooperation, the effort is bound to be successful."

"We are seeking a larger membership because with more members we can take up more projects and thus help the advancement of the entire community."

3 GOLFERS TO BOLT MEMPHIS GOLF TOURNEY

By FRANK ECK
Associated Press Sports Writer

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP) — Arnold Palmer, Gary Player and Stan Leonard have full intentions of playing in the International Cup matches, the Associated Press learned today.

The matches are set for San Juan, Puerto Rico, June 1-4, the same day as the Memphis Open which last June signed a Professional Golfers Association contract.

Memphis officials are insisting that Palmer, as U.S. Open champion; Player, because he has been a PGA tour winner this year, and Leonard, victor in the Western Open in Detroit last July, fulfill their PGA contracts to play in Memphis.

MAY BE SUSPENDED

Palmer will represent the United States with Sam Snead as his partner. They won the team title last year in Dublin. Snead needed only PGA permission to play in Puerto Rico and received it.

"I'm terribly disappointed and hurt," said South Africa's Gary Player when asked about Bob Rosburg's statement in which the PGA tournament committee chairman blasted Player.

About Player, Rosburg had said, "there is a player who goes to this country from South Africa and thinks it is real nice to win $48,000 in four months in PGA tournaments, but then suddenly doesn't think he should play by PGA rules."

The San Juan matches are sponsored by the International Golf Association. It has no PGA affiliation.

Player, Palmer and Leonard face a six-month suspension and a $500 fine if they bypass Memphis for San Juan.

DELONE TRIPS YORK CATHOLIC IN FINAL 9-2

Delone Catholic rang down the curtain on a highly successful baseball season Friday afternoon by whipping York Catholic 9-2 at McSherrystown.

During the season Coach John Flaherty's Squires won 10 while losing but three.

An even dozen Delone players went to bat in the second inning when the Squires scored seven times to ice the decision. In that inning Delone collected five singles, were issued three walks and profited on an Irish error, Bernie Stuller poled two of the singles during the inning.

Bill Timmins hurled the game for the winners and gave up only three safeties.

Rudolph, Sanders Lead Hot Springs

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — There was no clearcut leader as the $20,000 Hot Springs Open Golf Tournament reached its midway point. Bespectacled Mason Rudolph of Clarksville, Tenn., and red-hot Doug Sanders were tied at the top with 36-hole totals of 136.

After second round play Friday, the field of 94 professionals was clipped to 60 with 18-hole rounds scheduled today and Sunday.

Sanders, winner of last week's Colonial at Fort Worth, and Rudolph both fired 4-under-par 68s to oust Buster Cupit and Art Wall Jr. from the lead they held after the first 18 holes.

Rudolph fired a smooth 33-35. Sanders used 31 putts and shot five birdies for 34-34-68.

Cupit, of Fort Smith, Ark., Bert Weaver of Daytona Beach, Fla., and Jerry Steelsmith of Glendale, Calif., were tied for third with 137s.

Delaware has made the district playoffs three times in the past five years.

TRIBE RALLY JOLTS YANKS; ANGELS WIN 2

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cleveland Indians rallied for five runs in the eighth inning and defeated the New York Yankees 9-7 Friday night. It was the third straight loss for the Yankees and left them five games behind the American League leading Detroit Tigers, who were idled by cold weather at Boston.

Cleveland and Minnesota, tied for third, edged within .004 percentage points of New York, with the Twins belting Kansas City 11-1. Baltimore defeated Washington 4-2 and the last place Los Angeles Angels, after losing seven in a row, swept a two-night double-header from the Chicago White Sox 4-3 and 5-3.

3 YANKEES HOMER

The Yankees backed starter Bob Turley and Luis Arroyo, the first of the relievers, with home runs by Roger Maris, Yogi Berra and Hector Lopez at Cleveland and had a 7-4 lead going into the eighth. Then the Indians came up with four consecutive hits, the fourth a tying two-run single by Chuck Essegian off losing reliever Tex Clevenger (3-2). The deciding run was forced home when Jim Coates hit Woody Held with a pitch with the bases loaded.

Roy Power, who had three of Cleveland's 15 hits, closed the scoring by stealing home — his first steal of the season — as the Indians beat the Yanks for the first time in 13 decisions going back to last July 10. Barry Latman (3-0) won it in relief.

DOBBEK GETS TWO

The Twins blasted Kansas City's winning streak at five games as Dan Dobbek belted a pair of home runs, the first a grand slam that wrapped it up in a six-run third inning against Ed Rakow (0-1). Don Mincher also homered for the Twins while southpaw Jack Kralick won his fourth, against one defeat, with a seven-hit job.

Baltimore, after losing five in a row, replaced Kansas City in fifth place while ending the Senators' winning streak at five. The Birds did it with a three-run eighth inning—and they got 'em all without a hit, scoring the three on six walks by loser Tom Sturdivant (2-3) and relievers Dave Sisler and Marty Kutyna. Hoyt Wilhelm (5-1) won it with two hitless innings of relief.

DUREN SAVES TWO

The Angels won the opener on home runs by Steve Biko and Gene Leek, with Leek's hit breaking a 3-3 tie in the sixth against reliever Russ Kemmerer (0-2). Right-hander Jerry Casale, who had lost 12 in a row, three this year, was the winner. Ryne Duren, once the Yankees' bullpen pride, saved both games for the Angels, who took the nightcap on Earl Averill's two-run homer in the third off Bob Shaw (3-2). Duren pitched 12-3 innings of hitless relief in the opener, then nailed the second game for Ken McBride (3-2) with two innings of no-hit, shutout relief.

ALSTON DECLARED AFTER THE GAME

Roseboro said this was the first year the Dodgers have let him hit against left-handers but "I'm not tearing them up."

SNEAD LEADING OWN FESTIVAL

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP) — The way the principal character is frisking about the golf course they might well change the name of this tournament from the Sam Snead Festival to the Sam Snead Benefit.

Snead stood virtually unchanged today at the start of the third round of the $10,000 event. He was six strokes ahead of runner-up Gary Player at the halfway mark of the 72-hole event with a brilliant 129. And there seemed to be little chance he would be caught. He has won this tournament five times in the 14-year history of the golf show.

2 WITHDRAW

The West Virginia slammer has been pro here since 1936. While Snead was the big show, his 64 Friday was second best among the scores of the 69 contestants (two withdrew). Stan Leonard, in the Canadian, wielded a red-hot putter to turn in a 63 for a 36-hole total of 136 and third place.

Others among the top 10 were U.S. Open champion Arnold Palmer, who added a 67 to his opening 70 for a 137.

Tied at 138 were Chick Harbert of Miami, Fla., and two club pros. Bill Ogden of Glenview, Ill., and Bob Watson of Elmhurst, N.Y.

PHILLIES JAR PIRATES; CUBS DEFEAT CARDS

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Los Angeles Dodgers defeated San Francisco 8-7 Friday night, shaving the Giants' National League lead to two games while gaining a virtual second place tie with Cincinnati. The Reds defeated Milwaukee 3-2 and Philadelphia dropped Pittsburgh 4-1. Chicago's Cubs defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 1-0 behind the seven-hit pitching of Glen Hobbie.

An infield hit by Maury Wills and a double by Wally Moon gave the Dodgers the deciding run in the ninth inning against losing reliever Billy O'Dell (1-2). Johnny Roseboro had capped a four-run eighth for the Dodgers, giving them the lead with a three-run homer that made it 7-6.

BETS 3-RUN HOMER

Starter Juan Marichal blanked the Dodgers on three hits for five innings, then gave up a three-run homer by rookie Willie Davis in the sixth. The Giants bounced back in the seventh when Harvey Kuenn's three-run double broke a 3-3 tie. Kuenn drove in the Giants' last four runs, hitting a solo homer in the ninth off winning reliever Ron Perranoski (2-0).

The Reds, once easy pickins for the Braves and right-hander Lew Burdette, beat Milwaukee for the fourth time in four tries this season behind the five-hit pitching of Jim O'Toole (4-3).

MAHAFFEY IS WINNER

Jim Woods' first homer of the year broke a 1-1 tie and triggered a two-run fifth inning for the last place Phils, who have won only three of their last 15 games. Pirate right-hander Bob Friend (4-4) lost his fourth in a row. Art Mahaffey (4-3) was the winning pitcher.

The Cubs scored in the first inning on a single and Ernie Banks' two-out pop up that dropped for a double when Card shortstop Darryl Spencer lost it in the sun. Chicago managed just two more hits off southpaw Ray Sadecki (2-3). It was the 10th major league shutout for Hobbie (2-4).

DARK BEATEN BY OLD BOSS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Alvin Dark's strategy has helped put his San Francisco Giants into the top spot in the National League but it finally backfired against none other than his old boss, Leo Durocher.

It happened in the eighth inning Friday night at Candlestick Park. The Los Angeles Dodgers, trailing 6-4, had two runners on base, two out and left-hander hitting John Roseboro at bat.

Right-hander Stu Miller pitched two balls to Roseboro. Then Dark brought in left-hander Billy O'Dell to take over the hurling. Roseboro usually doesn't get to hit against southpaws as the Dodgers platoon their catchers.

Large Portion Of Plant Food Value Of Manure Is Lost, Says Farm Agent

By FRANK S. ZETTLE
Adams County Farm Agent

About a billion tons of farm manure is produced annually in the United States. The crop producing potential of this manure is considered to be about three billion dollars, but much of this potential is not realized. In fact, probably only one-fourth to one-third of the plant food value of manure is ever used by crops.

FRANK S. ZETTLE

Soil tests made at the Pennsylvania State University show that even less than one-fourth of manure value is being realized in many sections of Pennsylvania.

Dairy farms in northern and western Pennsylvania, in operation well over 100 years, still show low, and in some cases very low, soil potash levels. This hardly seems possible because thousands of tons of manure, which is supposed to carry a lot of potash, has been applied to these fields for years. Theoretically, we should recover about 85 per cent of the potash fed to the animal, and 70 per cent of this potash will be in the liquid portion of the manure. If the liquid is lost, much of the value of manure is lost.

MUCH MANURE LOST

Most farmers haul manure directly from the barn to the field. Much of this manure is lost from washing away on steep hillsides. More is lost because the farmer doesn't use enough bedding.

The best way to store manure is under a shed roof, and tramp or pack it like silage, making sure it does not become dry. To realize the maximum value from manure it is recommended that it be hauled to the fields and plowed down as soon as possible. This will not seem practical to most farmers, but in the long run, it would be the most practical method of conserving this farm byproduct.

POWDER POST BEETLES

Proper use of insecticides will help control a variety of the so-called powder post beetles that attack seasoned wood in buildings. The adults are tiny, dark brown beetles. Some of them attack only the sapwood of hardwoods, while others work in pine and fir timbers. The majority of the beetles deposit their eggs in the pores of the dry wood during June. The very small, white larvae or grubs eat the wood and pack their burrows with fine powder-like sawdust. This fine powder often sifts onto the floor or objects below. The adult beetles do very little feeding; it is the grubs that damage the wood.

If the infestation has continued for several years, the wood surface will usually contain numerous round holes about the size of pinheads. The holes are made by the adult beetles as they emerge from the wood. This emergence usually takes place in early June.

CLOSES WOOD PORES

A coat of paint or varnish will close the pores in the wood and will prevent the beetles from laying eggs, but will not destroy the eggs or grubs that may be in the wood before the application is made. A spray containing five per cent DDT, applied to the infested timbers before June 1, will give fair control. A five per cent pentachlorophenol solution painted or sprayed on infested wood is also effective. The odor from pentachlorophenol may be objectionable for several weeks after it is used.

Several thousand miles of tile drainage lines installed in Pennsylvania since World War II indicates how well farmers are satisfied with this method of draining the wet spots. Most farmers estimate that increased crop production and convenience of using modern farm machinery will repay the cost of tile drains in three to five years.

OTHER BENEFITS

Other drainage benefits are as follows:

1. Lowers the water and increases the supply of plant food by enlarging the root zone.
  2. Soil warms up earlier in the spring. Crops get an earlier start off and a longer growing season.
  3. Better soil aeration with quicker decomposition of organic matter.
  4. Improves the appearance of the farm and increases land value.
- A good outlet is necessary for every drainage system. An open soil waterway or surface stream below the level of the field usually makes the best outlet. Occasionally it is necessary to open a new outlet channel or clean out an old one which is too swampy for heavy machinery. Ditching dynamite is suitable and economical for this purpose. Do not discharge tile lines into a shallow surface, or on the surface of another field. Metallic pipe should be used for the last eight feet of the tile line to prevent damage by freezing. Protect it with a guard to prevent rabbits, rodents, and other small animals from plugging the line.
- You should mark the wet spots in spring so you can locate them when the tile ditching machine visits your community this summer.

Pickup Truck Kills Man In Accident

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A pickup truck veered into oncoming lanes on the Walt Whitman bridge Friday night and struck two cars, killing one of their drivers and injuring the other.

The dead driver was identified as Robert J. Dougherty, 23, of Lindenwood, N.J.

Bridge police reported that the truck, driven by Floyd A. Dukes, 27, of Blackwood, N.J., sideswiped a car driven by Stella Novak, 21, of Philadelphia, and hit Dougherty's car head-on.

Dukes was listed in fair condition at Methodist Hospital here.

MONUMENT IS REMINDER OF SORROW IN WAR

By DALE BURGESS
INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—The glamor and spectacle of conflict long past dominates the centennial observance of the Civil War.

But a simple marble monument at Crown Hill Cemetery in Indianapolis attests to the fact that all was not glamor and spectacle.

It marks the spot where 1,616 Confederate soldiers and sailors, their individual identities lost long ago, lie buried in a common grave. They died in the Union's Morton Prison.

In its way, Morton Prison was as infamous in the South as Andersonville was in the North.

Yet, former Confederate prisoners thought so highly of its first commander, Col. Richard Owen, that they and their friends subscribed funds for a memorial bust which still stands in the Indiana statehouse.

FIRST SHIPMENT

"For his courtesy and kindness . . ." it says

Col. Owen commanded the prison on only four months after it received its first shipment of 3,700 prisoners in February, 1862. Under a succession of unwilling commanders, who would rather have been in the field, the prison deteriorated.

Augustus M. Clark, a government medical inspector, looked over the camp in October, 1863 and called it "a disgrace . . . filthy in every respect; condition of men in barracks exceedingly foul; in hospital, miserable."

In justice to the commanders, who often had trouble getting adequate supplies, many of the prisoners were near death from wounds, disease and malnutrition when they reached the prison.

The last prisoners were released June 13, 1865, and the Indianapolis Journal reported:

"In tattered gray and butternut the poor fellows straggled down our streets in search of transportation to their homes. The departure of many of these has been delayed because they were in the hospital. As we saw them, haggard and pale, tottering along with their little poverty-stricken bundles, we felt sincerely sorry for them."

NO BITTERNESS

"In our heart there was no bitterness of feeling against them."

Miss Novak was treated for face injuries and released.

Find Slayer In San Pedro Prison

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Police say they have found the killer of a high school teacher from Phoenixville, Pa., in the federal prison at San Pedro.

Inspector Ralph McDonald said Friday that fingerprints in a San Francisco motel where Joseph W. Mazeskie was stabbed to death two years ago and on a stolen car have been traced to Albert Lessard, 31, convicted of driving the car across state lines.

McDonald said credit cards belonging to Mazeskie, 31, an English teacher at Sanger, Calif., were used to rent a car in Seattle which was never returned. Mazeskie also was robbed of $800.

McDonald said of Lessard, "He's a federal prisoner, but eventually he will be prosecuted for Mazeskie's death."

KILLED IN CRASH

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A car struck an embankment along U.S. 51 early today, killing the driver, Clyde Lachapelle, 26, of Glassport.

The Allegheny County coroner's office said Lachapelle was thrown from the car by the impact. The crash occurred in nearby Forward Twp.

They go back to a conquered country—to overgrown fields—to ruined villages—to homes, the chimneys of which only are left. . . War is a hard thing, and it leaves a black and damning trail."

Not a trace is left of Morton Prison, which used to be a mile and a half north of Indianapolis. Now the site is miles inside the city limits and covered with blocks of homes.

The dead prisoners were buried on what then was the west edge of the city, along White River, in Greenlawn Cemetery.

FACTORY NOW THERE

Industry crowded into the area and all the remains that could be found were shoveled into 25 boxes and moved to Crown Hill in 1928. Wooden grave markers had been weathered blank, long before.

A factory which makes chains now occupies the Greenlawn Cemetery site.

Col. Owen, the commander the prisoners liked, himself was captured at Munfordville, Ky., in September, 1863. On hand was Southern Gen. Simon B. Buckner, who had once been a prisoner in Indianapolis although he was permitted to stay in a hotel outside Morton Prison.

Buckner returned Col. Owen's sidearms and thanked him for his considerate treatment of his prisoners. The colonel was paroled and permitted to return to the North.

FIVE BAILED AT FRAUD HEARING

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Five men charged with conspiracy to defraud the city in construction on the Frankford Street Elevated have been held in $1,000 bail each for action by the grand jury.

Eli G. Travis, a contractor and one of those arrested, testified at a hearing Friday that he paid two of the defendants $25,000 to help him get city contracts.

The employees were identified as Harold V. Varani, 41, recently fired as chief of the division of architecture and engineering in the Department of Public Property, and Benjamin D. Barone, 28, a former confidential city secretary and vice president of one of Travis' firms.

OTHERS ARRESTED

John H. Francis, 41, fired deputy commissioner of public property, and George H. Smith, a former vice president of the Philadelphia Transportation Co., also were arrested.

The city alleges it was cheated of some $200,000 in repairs to the elevated line by Travis' company. The line is owned by the city and operated by the PTC.

3 WILL SHARE COOPER ESTATE

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actor Gary Cooper left most of his estate, believed to be worth more than $1 million, to his widow, daughter and mother.

His will, signed last Feb. 27, when he knew he was dying of cancer, was filed Friday in Superior Court for probate. The screen star died last Saturday at age 60.

The will leaves Cooper's widow, Veronica, half the estate, including his interest in their home. From the other half it bequeaths $5,000 each to a brother, Arthur Cooper; a nephew, Howard Cooper, and a niece, Georgia C. Burton; $1,000 to Our Lady of Gethsemane Abbey in Kentucky and $10,000 to the Motion Picture Relief Fund, Inc.

The remainder goes into a trust for Mrs. Cooper, their daughter Maria and the actor's mother, Alice L. Cooper.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Methodist Bishop Fred Pierce Corson has endorsed a report calling for an end to racial segregation. But he has been skeptical of the ease with which it was approved unanimously by 300 ministers.

Major League Stars By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pitching — Ryne Duren, Angels, saved both games in 4-3 and 5-3 two-night double-header sweep over White Sox with 1-2-3 innings of no-hit relief in opener and two innings of no-hit relief in the nightcap.

Hitting — Dan Dobbek, Twins, drove in five runs with two homers, the first a wrap-up grand slam, in 11-1 romp over A's.

GIRL JAILED IN PARENTS' DEATH

HARTINGTON, Neb. (AP)—A pretty young schoolgirl was in the small brick jail here today after admitting she killed her parents because they objected to her having dates.

County Atty. Max Goetz said he would file charges against Sharon Dahl later. He said the straw-blond high school sophomore signed a statement she shot her father, Victor Dahl, 45, and her mother, Rosa, 34.

The slaying orphaned the seven children of the tenant farmers at nearby Coleridge. Sharon was the eldest. The grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Dahl of nearby Laurel, took the others, ages 2 to 12, after the tragedy.

Goetz said Sharon complained her parents had been restricting her for a couple of years. About a week ago, Sharon told him, she began thinking of killing them.

About daybreak Friday, she related in her statement, she slipped downstairs, loaded both barrels of her father's .16 gauge shotgun and blasted both parents in the head as they slept.

Lehigh Wins MAC Tennis Tourney

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP)—Lehigh University has won the Middle Atlantic Conference tennis championship with a 5-2-3/2 victory over Swarthmore.

Lehigh, the northern division winner, took four of six singles matches and one of the two doubles matches played Friday to best Swarthmore, the southern division winner. The third doubles contest was stopped by rain.

Lehigh defeated Swarthmore for the MAC title last year and shared it with Swarthmore in 1959.

When you have an egg white leftover, you can use it to stretch whipped cream. Beat the egg white with a pinch of cream of tartar until foamy, then gradually beat in one-quarter cup of finely granulated sugar; continue beating until very stiff. Fold in a teaspoon of vanilla and one-half cup of cream that has been whipped. Serve with fresh berries or fruit cobbler.

Youth Nabbed In Philly Slaying

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Earl Franklin, 22, was arrested in the murder of a 90-year-old shopkeeper after appearing at a hearing of a companion, also named in the killing, as a spectator.

Police said Franklin mixed freely with other onlookers at the hearing Friday of Robert Walker, 23, seemingly unaware that some 100 police were looking for him. He was arrested a half hour after the hearing when police learned he was in the neighborhood.

Insist on a WARRANTY in writing that can be "backed-up." 5. BUYING from a NEW CAR DEALER IS YOUR BEST BET . . . Most new car dealers sell locally owned trade-ins, not Used Cars obtained from Auto Auctions or distress merchandise from large cities. 6. Insist on knowing where the Used Car came from. "Ask who was the previous owner." Most new car dealers will be happy to tell you and invite you to contact the previous owner. 7. New Cars bought from Used Car Dealers . . . ## DA WILL SEEK EXTRADITIONS IN FIX CASES

NEW YORK (AP)—North Carolina District Solicitor Lester V. Chalmers says he'll seek extradition for anyone who has violated North Carolina laws in connection with the basketball fixing scandals.

Chalmers made that statement after a 2½ hour conference Thursday during which he and Alfred J. Scotti, New York County assistant district attorney, agreed on ground rules for their joint effort to clear up the mounting scandals. They were scheduled for another conference today.

"We agreed on a plan of action and that is that we've got a prime target — to get the gamblers," Chalmers said. "Our intention right now is to clean this mess up and create confidence again in sports and to insure the people that corruption is a thing of the past."

He would not say whether he had any particular gamblers in mind or whether any gambling contacts in this state were involved. There were some indications, however, that the possible

Around The TV Dial

Otis Carney is a proud man. His new book, "Good Friday, 1963" has won accolades from none other than Barry Goldwater, U. S. senator from Arizona. Carney, formerly a top scripter of TV shows such as "Medic" and "D. A.'s Man," found that the sales of the volume jumped after Senator Goldwater was quoted in a column saying: "Good Friday, 1963 is in my opinion a book every American should read. It is not pleasant reading, it will not provide a happy escape from the problems of the day. Although the book is fiction, it may be prophetic in its predictions of how the American people will ultimately lose their freedom."

Garry Moore, moderator on "I've Got A Secret," is having a new den built. Well-known decorators, Manashaw and Baggett, are designing it and it will be shown at the National Design Center as one of the "Ten Best Dressed Rooms." Other stars represented at the showing, which is for the benefit of the Visiting Nurse Service of New York, are Lucille Ball, Richard Burton, Leonard Bernstein, Rita Gam, Tommy Grimes, Phil Silvers, Cornelia Otis Skinner, Betsy Von Furstenberg and Dorothy Kilgallen. They served as the inspiration for the various rooms.

SMALL WORLD, ISN'T IT? One of the best wardrobe women who assisted Polly Bergen while Polly was filming "Never Trust A Man" was named Helen Morgan. (It was her betrayal of the late singer, Helen Morgan, that Polly was awarded an "Emmy" in 1957.)

LOTS OF WATCHES: Julia Meade, who handled the "commercials" for a watch manufacturer earlier in the month of May, was the most appropriate person for such an assignment. Julia owns 19 wrist watches—and they all work.

FROM WEEKLY TV DIGEST: NBC-TV has completely sold time for four football bowl games, although the events are seven months away. A new animated-comedy series, "Cactus Sidney," will be aimed for network airing next season. It is a slapstick satire on westerns . . . Producer Jerry Wald expects to do one three-hour special per year starting in the fall.

FROM RADIO-TV DAILY: The U. S. Treasury Department is showing a film of the coronation of Mrs. America 1961 on TV stations throughout the country. "My Three Sons" will be shown weekly in Japan.

FROM THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER: Paul Anka taped a one-hour special of Italian songs with Italian dialogue at the request of a Rome TV station. Yellowstone National Park has accepted a donation from Kellogg's, the sponsor of "Yogi Bear," of five life sized statues of Yogi Bear . . . Raymond Massey will guest star on a forthcoming "Adventures in Paradise" episode.

"SING ALONG" SINGERS

The male chorus who will be appearing on NBC-TV's "Sing Along With Mitch" series beginning September 28 from 10 to 11 p.m. (NYT) is the same choral group which is featured on Miller's Columbia Records. Although their recording and television activities leave little time for other pursuits, several of the singers have outside business ventures. Adrian Revere, who has appeared with many of the top opera companies, is a gentleman farmer. While he toils in front of the TV cameras, a hired staff cares for his farm in Connecticut.

Another part-time businessman is Jay Kapfer, who recently bought an interest in a restaurant in Greenwich Village, New York.

Civil War Theme In New TV Series:

The Americans

SINCE the Civil War theme had previously been taboo on television, Variety recently reported that "The Americans" (Mondays, 7:30-8:30 p.m., E.S.T., NBC-TV) was the most eagerly watched by all networks. Now five months after its premiere it has proved to have been just as eagerly watched by the American public. In this hour-long adventure series the viewers see individual qualities that are recognized as distinctly American.

To provide strong and personal credible characters involved in conflicts that are psychologically meaningful.

Two rising young stars, Darryl Hickman and Dick Davalos, are cast in the continuing roles. Hickman portrays Ben Canfield who sided with the North. Davalos plays Jeff Canfield who chose to fight for the South.

In real life, their careers are related in that both began their acting at the age of five.

FAIR EXCHANGE

If his father had not been an

Dwayne "Dobie Gillis" Hickman. When he became too old for child roles and too young for adult roles, he entered a transition period that he readily admits was his most difficult to date. After college and a hitch in the Army he came back to Hollywood filled with doubt. Was he a has-been, just another "former child star," would anyone remember? It was weeks, but it seemed like years, before he was called—for a minor TV role. The television credits of Darryl, the man, now outnumber the movie credits of Darryl, the boy.

"MAGIC MIRROR"

Dick Davalos, born in the Bronx, New York City, started acting in a boarding school production of "Snow White." No dwarf, Dick played the role of the magic mirror. He remained the headliner of school theatrical productions and made his professional debut shortly before graduation at age of 16, with the Chapel Theater Players in the title role of "Hans Brinker."

Upon discharge from a hitch

Michael Rennie guest starred in the "Rebellion at Blazing Rock" episode of The Americans identification for TV viewers "The Americans" unfolds colorful drama of the Civil War years through the eyes of two young brothers, the Canfields. One of the fictional brothers is a Confederate soldier; the other wears the Union blue. Out of their diverse experiences emerges a rounded picture of a nation struggling through its darkest hour to a new plateau of understanding and achievement. While the principal roles in most episodes of "The Americans" are portrayed by guest talent, the Canfield brothers provide the twin pivots around which the storyline action develops. They lend a thread of continuity to what otherwise would be an anthology series with a Civil War setting.

LOADED WITH ACTION

The series is laden with action in the sense that the settings and incidents afforded by its Civil War backdrop are rich with color and excitement, full of movement, never static. To add to the effectiveness of this action-packed, colorful panorama and to invest the series with maximum realism, the speech, manners, costumes and other articles and details are scrupulously authentic. In the main, however, the emphasis is on good adult drama, presenting insurance salesman, Darryl Hickman might never have become an actor. The father, Milton Hickman, has sold many a policy in the past 30 years, but more important from Darryl's point of view is the one he sold about 25 years ago to the director of a children's dancing school. The school director said he would buy the policy on only one condition—that the elder Hickman enroll his son in the school. Papa Hickman agreed, thereby unwittingly launching one of the busiest careers in Hollywood.

Within a year, Darryl was under contract at MGM. From practically his first day on the lot, Darryl became the child workhorse of the studio. It was commonplace for him to "bicycle" (Hollywood talk for working two pictures at once). Once, at the age of 10, he tricycled from "Assignment in Brittany" with Jean Pierre Aumont, in which he played a French underground boy; to "Keeper of the Flame" with Spencer Tracy and Katherine Hepburn, as a neurotic lad; to "The Human Comedy" with Mickey Rooney, as a backward boy.

WROTE OWN TICKET

Darryl stopped counting his motion picture credits at 196. For a little fellow, he got to be such a big man at the studio that he often was able to write his own ticket. From time to time this meant suggesting his kid brother for a part in one of his pictures. Thus began the career of television's in the Navy, young Davalos enrolled in the Martha Graham School of the Dance in New York—"partially because of the newly acquired coordination of my sea legs and partially to diversify myself as an entertainer." But he soon realized that emphasis on movement alone was not enough, and he began studying under Uta Hagen at the Herbert Berghof Studio.

Studio contracts led to a few minor roles off Broadway and on television, and these led to a successful screen test for a role (as brother to the character portrayed by James Dean) in "East of Eden." Under the motion picture contract that followed, he appeared in several notable films, including "The Sea Chase" and "All the Young Men." But the assignments came too infrequently for Davalos and despite the security of his contract, he demanded and secured an unconditional release. Returning to New York, he won the role of Rodolpho, the blond Italian, in Arthur Miller's Broadway production of "A View From the Bridge."

Next, it was back to television, but this time the roles were not minor ones, but leads in some of the major dramatic shows on television.

So it is with these two fine American young men that each week the American viewing audience receives a history lesson on their heritage.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

By MARSHALL TUCKEY

More than a billion people . . . over one-half the earth's population . . . live mainly on RICE. It is estimated that a plot of land put to rice will support five times as many people as the same piece of land set to raising any other food. Historically, rice became the symbol of fertility and prosperity. Today in India, it is still part of the wedding ceremony to give the newly-wedded pair a gift of rice powder. In Japan, rice cakes are given to insure a prosperous and fertile married life. And here in the West we find a stylized version of this in front of many a church on a Sunday afternoon.
